BABY BOOKWORM: BUILDING BABY BOOKWORMS, DAY BY DAY.

Baby Bookworm, written by pediatrician Dr. John S. Hutton and physician-scientist and neonatologist Dr. V.G. Jain, was designed with NICU babies and parents in mind. Rhyming and soothing text combine with gentle watercolor illustrations offering support to families during the often-anxious time spent in the NICU. Baby Bookworm is intended for parents and caregivers to read to their babies in the NICU to help their babies feel calm and loved.

Baby Bookworm was created as a companion for the NICU Bookworms program, which has been found to reduce parental stress during this challenging time and enhance reading in the NICU and after discharge.

Before I was born,
your voice was a hum.

Each beat of your heart,
lub dub, like a drum.

Hold me close,
share your feelings,
sing me a song.

Your words let me know,
in your heart
I belong.

Soon we'll go home,
and this will be true...

one day I'll be the one
reading to you.
